Preface.

THE Order of the Founders and Patriots of America having greatly increased in numbers, the necessity of knowing who were their fellow-members was pressed upon the Associates of the Order, and at the annual meeting of the General Court, May 13, 1901, the subject of gratifying the desire for such information was considered, and a committee was appointed to take up the matter, with directions to report to the Council General. At the autumn meeting of the Council General in 1901 that committee made a report, and the Council General directed the committee to proceed and prepare the material for the Register — then, however, planned to be a modest pamphlet, with provision for binding copies for such Associates as would bear such expense each for himself.

The data and information in possession of the Registrar General was most necessary to the work of the committee, and to him the committee resorted for his aid and assistance, which was most cheerfully given and was most satisfactory; and it was due to the cheerfully-given co-operation of Associate Teunis Dimon Huntting, the then Registrar General of the Order, and to his persistent, industrious, painstaking and cheerfully-performed work, in gathering, from the "application papers" and the records in his possession, the data and information which then enabled the committee to perform the work of completing and publishing the Register of 1902.

That Register became a book of reference to very many, and a means of obtaining family history, and of gathering up and preserving a record of the personal public services of the Associates of the Order.

Within the fifty years now past, and during the lifetime of most of the Associates, our country has passed through two wars in which many have served. The committee sought all possible information of their participation in those struggles. Many were very modest concerning their personal history. Some incidents of most honorable service, stated as to many Associates, were not communicated at all by them, and facts not stated by them have been gleaned from other sources. Wherever information given as to one is not given as to another, it does not follow that nothing of like interest remained to be communicated as to those of whom like things are not said, but such things were not stated in the information returned.

At the annual meeting of the General Court on May 13, 1902, the committee reported to the General Court a mass of manuscript, and it was then instructed to go forward with the work, and by vote of the General Court was ordered to print the book for distribution, and an appropriation was made for the purpose liberal enough to satisfy every demand, and it was put forth to the Order and to the public.

The book of that committee laid before the General Court and the Associates of the Order was bound in the first instance to contain mistakes, but only those persons who have had a hand in such work can appreciate the amount of labor bestowed upon it, or the inevitable liability to error.

In the year 1909 at the Hartford meeting of the General Court of the Order, a new Register was ordered. A report was made at the May meeting in New York in 1910. At the Philadelphia meeting in 1911 the work was reported and its publication was ordered and a publication committee was appointed and this work, the "Register 1911," is now presented to the Associates and to the public. For sake of the future we ask that every Associate who, in reading this book, shall discover that the public services, civil or military, of any other Associate are not here recorded, will prepare a statement of such services and forward it to the Registrar General, for use in the preparation of any future Register.

As the pages of the book shall be consulted, or read, a fact that cannot escape attention is the prevalence in the genealogical lines of the Associates of Bible names, and of those easily recognized as peculiarly Puritan names, among the men, as Barnabas, Bartholomew, Job, Daniel, Elijah, Hezekiah, Ebenezer, Joshua, Japheth, Abijah, Elihu, Hopestill, Preserved, Jedediah, Israel, Bezaleel; also among the women as Magdalen, Tryphena, Tamar, Hannah, Tabitha, Hepsibah, Deborah, Mehitable, Eunice, Lois, Priscilla, Ruth, Prudence, Mercy, Wait, Submit, Grace, Silence, Plain, Hopestill, Thankful, Experience, Deliverance, Sophronia, Rhoda, Dorcas, Keziah, Penelope, Hepsibeth, Hilpah, and many others of the like, all of which cannot now be mentioned.

Such facts cannot fail to tell the story of the kind of blood which flows in the veins of the Associates, and to assure that they came of a race of God-fearing, Bible-loving, religion-respecting, and virtue-valuing ancestors; such as we shall, not only as of those days, but in all days, be glad we came from, the men and women who made sturdy characters and good habits, an ancestry of the kind to whom this great nation of ours owes more for its solid, law-abiding and law-honoring, good citizenship, than to any other of the emigrant peoples who followed to find homes in the good land our ancestors had subdued for them.

"Steadfast for God and Country."

History of the Order of the Founders and Patriots of America.

THE motive leading to the formation of The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America, at a time when so many hereditary societies, born of the Centennial Era beginning in 1876, were already in existence, was the desire to meet certain most desirable requirements which none of the existing organizations seemed to meet. There were societies of lineal descendants of patriots of the American Revolution and of other subsequent wars, membership in which indicated no antecedent American lineage. On the other hand, there were societies of descendants of ante-revolutionary progenitors, membership in which did not indicate that the intermediate ancestors during the War for Independence were loyal to the American cause. There was nothing in the eligibility requirements of the latter societies to exclude from membership persons whose ancestors in the same line were allied with the enemies of the Colonies during the great sacrificial crisis in which our republic was brought into being as an independent nation. In fact, entrance into such latter societies was open to, and into them actually entered, those whose ancestors in the Revolutionary period actually fought against the Colonies, and against the patriots whose memory we delight to honor and who offered their lives and their all to found the nation and the liberties we enjoy and have inherited from them.

It justly was resented by patriotic Americans, that some of such societies passed into control of those who outwardly vaunted their tory ancestors and who were so proud of it as to herald the fact that their ancestors had never intermarried with any patriot blood, as though such was an honor and a ground of pride, and not a misfortune to be sincerely mourned and to be passed rather in silence than to be trumpeted.

We may not conceal that it was hostility to such tory sentiment which suggested the formation of The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America.

It was therefore believed, and the belief has been justified by events, that there was not only room but a call for an hereditary Order whose insignia should be a badge of double honor — honor of descent from those brave and hardy pioneers who subdued the primeval wilderness and first planted within the limits of the original colonies the civilization which now leads the world, and honor of descent from those who, in patriotism and devotion and love of liberty, founded the first republic in the western hemisphere and the greatest republic among the nations of the earth.

Moved by these feelings an informal conference of a few of the descendants of those founders and patriots was called and held at the Astor House in New York City on the 24th day of February, 1896, at which it was determined to form this Order.

The terms of eligibility, as afterward framed and inserted in the Constitution, were agreed upon, in short that every member must be descended in the male line of father or mother, from an ancestor who settled in one of the thirteen original colonies within fifty years (half a century) from the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, and through the same line only, through patriots in the Revolutionary period but not of necessity through those who rendered military service. A second conference for the purpose agreed upon was held at the Hotel Endicott, in New York City, March 9, 1896, at which time the name of the Order was agreed upon and steps taken toward its organization and the work of preparing the necessary papers for incorporation was assigned.

A third conference was held in the Tribune Building, Printing House Square, in New York City, on the 16th day of March, 1896, at which there were present Messrs. William Winton Goodrich, Edward Nelson Granville Greene, Henry Lincoln Morris, Ralph Earl Prime, Howard Sumner Robbins, Charles Waterman Bentley Wilkinson, and three others. "It was then formally agreed by the nine gentlemen present to take measures to form a new Colonial and Patriotic society, and to that end to incorporate according to the laws of the State of New York, and that the name of the new society shall be 'The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America,' and that the New York Society of the Order shall be incorporated." Thereupon and at that time the certificate of incorporation was signed and executed in duplicate by the nine gentlemen present, who thus became the Founders of the Order. Directions were given for obtaining the approval of the certificate by a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York and the filing thereof in the proper public offices. The gentlemen then present agreed to meet again March 23, 1896, at the Hotel Endicott in New York City.

The Certificate of Incorporation was, on the 17th day of March, 1896, duly approved by Hon. Jackson O. Dykman, a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, and on the 18th day of March one of the duplicate certificates was duly filed in the office of the Secretary of State in Albany, N. Y., and the other duplicate certificate was, the same 18th day of March, 1896, duly filed in the office of the Clerk of the County of New York in New York City and the New York Society thus became incorporated.

Pursuant to appointment, five of the nine Founders met again in the evening of March 23, 1896, at the Hotel Endicott. For the completion of the organization, the work was divided and assigned to different persons. The formation of the society having been made public, many applications for admission had been received by the different Founders, all of which were referred to a membershp committee, for investigation, as were also the lines of descent of the Founders of the Order.

Again, on the 6th day of April, 1896, a meeting of the Founders was held at the Hotel Endicott. At this time there were also present some of those who had applied for membership and whose eligibility had been approved by the membership committee. A form of constitution and by-laws was reported and was discussed and after adding a provision for the eligibility of the sons of original members, the work was approved and it was determined to accord to all whose applications for membership had been approved, the privilege of participating in the adoption of the constitution and by-laws and such were then denominated Charter Members.

On the evening of the 24th day of April, 1896, at the Hotel Normandie, in the City of New York, a meeting of the Charter Members was held. At that time they were seventy-eight in number. At that meeting the constitution and by-laws of the Order, which had already been approved by the Founders, was presented and read in full, and with an amendment providing for dual membership was adopted, and the organization completed by the election of the officers and councillors of the New York Society of The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America.

The terms of the constitution provided for a Society of the Order in each State and for a General Court of the Order to be composed of The Founders of the Order, the Officers of the General Court, with representatives of each of the State Societies, consisting of the first eight (since nine) of its officers, and it authorized the New York State Society of the Order to act as the General Court until the General Court should be organized by the representatives of at least three State Societies and meanwhile to issue charters to such State Societies as it should organize. Each member was to be known as an "Associate."

On the 24th day of April, 1896, the Council of the New York Society of the Order granted a charter to nine Associates to organize the New Jersey Society of the Order, and appointed its first meeting to be held at the house of Associate William Armstrong Halsey in Newark, N. J., on the 28th day of April, 1896, at which time and place the New Jersey Society of the Order was organized.

On the 1st day of May, 1896, the Council of the New York Society of the Order granted a charter to nine Associates to organize the Connecticut Society of the Order, and appointed its first meeting to be held at the house of Associate Charles Augustus Jewell, in Hartford, Conn., on the 9th day of May, 1896, at which time and place the Connecticut Society of the Order was organized.

Three Societies of the Order having thus been organized, the Founders of the Order and the officers of those Societies, entitled to sit in the General Court of the Order, met in the historic Governor's Room, in the City Hall in the City of New York, on the 13th day of May, 1896, the 289th anniversary of the settlement of Jamestown, Va., and organized the General Court of the Order, and elected its General Officers and Councillors General, and the General Court then became the Supreme Governing body of the Order.

On the 28th day of December, 1896, the Council General granted a charter to eleven Associates (to which number four others were subsequently added) to organize the Pennsylvania Society of the Order and appointed its first meeting to be held in the city of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 14th day of January, 1897, at which time and place the Pennsylvania Society of the Order was organized.

The Order of the Founders and Patriots of America now consist of the General Court of the Order and four State Societies of the Order and numbers in all 450 Associates.

Its membership consists of citizens of the United States, who are descended in the paternal line of either father or mother, from an ancestor who settled within the limits of what became the original thirteen colonies during the first half century, from the first settlement in America, at Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, and whose intermediate ancestors in the same line were loyal to the cause of the American Colonies during the War for their Independence. Pursuant to an amendment, adopted May 13, 1902, it also admits to membership the male descendants of Associates of the Order, thus making the members a new stock for the perpetuation of the Order.

Constitution of the Order of the Founders and Patriots of America.
